GET READY TO VOTE.

While the "printer" is still short more than $20.00 of what the lowest offer from outside the county is to furnish the ballots and election supplies for next Wednesday's primary, Judge Griffin for himself and two of Mr. West's supporters for Mr. West have underwritten the job to the extent that the "county chairman" has guaranteed to supply the needed ballots.

This writer as the "printer" had quite an argument with himself in the person of the "county chairman" as to whether he should do it, but for once the hard-boiled "printer" got argued down over the price of a job.

We know that's good news to the other fellows who try to make the "printer's" prices for him, but the supplies are going to be ready by Monday—so you voters at the various boxes get ready to get them by not later than Tuesday and earlier if possible, and let's all be voting Democrats next Wednesday.

Then tell your neighbors there will be an election at your box.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

The mid-week Lenten service for Wednesday, March 15, will be based upon Christ's third Word from the Cross, "Woman, behold thy son, behold thy mother." We were pleased at the good attendance to start with, and trust it will become even better. The service begins at 8 o'clock and lasts one hour as a rule. You are invited.

Our Sunday service will be held in German beginning at 10:30 A. M. There will be no night service. The Sunday school and Bible Classes meet at 9:15. Our attendance in the adult class is increasing. Come early and join us!

The Ladies Aid Society has greatly beautified the church property by planting some new shrubbery and rearranging the old. We appreciate this improvement very gratefully.

These children of the congregation aged 8 years and up, boys and girls, who wish to sing in the children's chorus for the Easter Season, please report for practice at the church on Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

BURGULARS CAUGHT.

As the result of a raid on an all-night drinking party in the suburbs of Beaumont recently three men were arrested in whose possession was found property that had been stolen in a recent robbery of the postoffice in Devine and also a burglary in Pearsall. In an effort to get away one of the suspects was considerably shot up by officers at Beaumont and is in a hospital in that city. Sheriff Schuele went to Beaumont accompanied by Andrew Bloss and Arthur Ney and on Sunday brought the other two to Hondo where they were bound over to the grand jury in an examining trial. They will also be held for examination for the Pearsall job.

On Monday two suspects held for one of the recent burglaries at LaCoste were also bound over in a hearing in justice court.

MORE SPEAKING.

The run-off primary which has been set for next Wednesday, February 15th, brought three stump speakers to Hondo Wednesday of this week. While the Trades Day crowd gathered and waited for the awarding of the prizes the people were entertained by the speakers.

Prof. W. N. Saathoff, who acts as master of ceremonies at the awarding of the premiums, introduced Dr. James O. Rail of South San Antonio, a long time friend of Hon. Gordon Griffin, who spoke for about fifteen minutes. He complimented Mr. Griffin for his integrity, ability and courage and said he is being fought by a powerful political ring and counseled the people of the 15th District to vote for a "ring-buster", Hon. Gordon Griffin.

Following Dr. Rail's address, Judge R. J. Noonan introduced Judge A. W. Cunningham, County Judge of Cameron county, who spoke for about twenty minutes in the interest of his fellow townsman, Hon. Milton West. He praised Mr. West's mental integrity, said he can be depended upon to do the thing he believes right and that no man or set of men would

GORDON GRIFFIN.

HONDO'S TRADES DAY.

The usual large and interested crowd turned out Wednesday for Hondo's regular monthly trades day despite the fact that it was a beautiful spring day and ideal for field work which has been long delayed.

The large crowd listened attentively for more than an hour to a series of political speeches—reported elsewhere in this paper—just preceding the awarding of the trade premiums, and Mr. Saathoff "suffered" the necessity of having to cut his formal speech much below its normal proportions.

In the awarding of premiums, which in this instance were checks good for cash when the holidays are over, the first went to Louis Weyand; second, to Minnie Moncado; third, to Mrs. Charles Graff; fourth, to Mrs. Robert Bendele; fifth, to Mrs. Dr. W. H. Smith; sixth, to Mrs. John Zuberbuehl; and seventh, to W. C. Allen.

After the awards, the crowd broke up in its usual cheerful mood, those not having luck to win this time consoling themselves with the thought that the second Wednesday in April will be another day.

In the meantime, look back over last week's paper; see who among Hondo merchants are giving trade premium tickets and ask for them. Make Hondo your trading point.

Community-Wide Revival to Begin March 19th.

REV. AND MRS. R. L. FLOWERS.

A community-wide revival is to begin Sunday, March 19th, under the leadership of Rev. R. L. Flowers and Mrs. Flowers.

We who have had the responsibility in the directing of the spiritual interest of the community have been control his official conduct. He pointed out that West's lead over Griffin in the first primary was so great that Griffin would have to gain about six votes to West's one from the vote cast for the eliminated candidates in order to catch up, and he called attention to the fact that the Uvalde supporters of Pulliam are out in a strong endorsement of West.

He concluded by saying that successful as Mr. Griffin is at "ring-busting" he was not big enough to overcome the lead Mr. West has over him.

Hon. Gordon Griffin was next introduced, Prof. W. N. Saathoff doing the honors for "his long-time friend".

Mr. Griffin spoke at some length. He deplored the fact that an old "ring-buster" like his friend, Judge Cunningham, in the event of a useful life, had mounted a "ring" bandwagon along with Maury Hughes, Roy Miller, Archie Parr and the Kleberg crowd. He denounced as unfair and without basis of fact the attacks being made on his Democracy. He said he had challenged Hughes and West to meet him on the stump for a comparison of their records as Democrats and that neither had the courage to accept. Instead of being a Republican in 1928, as has been charged, he was campaign manager for Judge Garner that year and carried the county for him in the primary in opposition to a Hidalgo county man. He said also that he not only voted the Democratic ticket in 1932 but managed the finance campaign for the National Democratic ticket, and read a letter from his defeated opponent, Hon. Charles R. Tips, who pledged him his support in the run-off primary and at the same time acknowledged a contribution of $25.00 from him to the National Democratic Campaign Fund Committee of which Mr. Tips was District Chairman.

Mr. Griffin was accorded frequent applause and made a favorable impression on his hearers.

Following the speaking he held a conference last night with a number of his friends with a view to effecting an organization to secure a full turn-out of the Griffin vote at next Wednesday's election.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES.

With the opening of spring and this fine weather, everyone should be back in his place in Sunday school and church. Make your plans to attend church Sunday. In times such as these everyone needs the ministry of the church of Jesus Christ to help them to keep their bearings, and have the spirit of co-operation that we must have in our country to come out of this situation.

Sunday will be the last service that will be held in our individual church before the revival begins. We especially insist on every member being present Sunday morning for the Study together of the Words of Life and to remain for the eleven o'clock worship service. Let us have a record for the year Sunday morning. You can help make it so.

The Revival will begin Sunday morning the 19th of the month in the Baptist church. We are hoping to see the church filled to overflowing the first morning; we can do it, if everyone will come. Everyone, get in on this revival that is for the entire community from the very first service. We need a sweeping revival in our country; may this be the time when it shall come. You can help by doing all you can. When we get ready the spiritual tides will flow. May we get ready.

Come and let us think on our part and place in it Sunday morning. Bring the children to Sunday school.

We can find many excuses, hard times, no clothes, no money. "The Lord looketh not on the outside but on the inside. Lay aside every excuse and come thinking not how we look, but how we are, realizing our need of a spiritual background for these emergencies.

Put first things first Sunday morning and come to the house of worship. You will be amply repaid for any extra effort you may make.

P. E. LANCASTER.

ELECTION NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that an election will be held Saturday, April 1, 1933, for the purpose of electing two trustees for the Hondo Independent School District. The election will be held at the Courthouse in the city of Hondo, and the polls will be open from 8 a. m. to 7 p. m. All legally qualified voters of this school district may vote. Verner King will act as chairman, and Felix Batot and Jack Droitecourt as clerks.

Dr. H. J. MEYER.

Pres. Board of Trustees, Hondo Independent School District.

WEST THE COMING MAN.

The managing editor of this paper had hoped before the last primary that the four "home boys" this side the desert sands that separate us from the lower valley could be thinned down to a stand so that we could put one of them over in the race for the nomination for Congressman

MILTON H. WEST.

TO THE VOTERS.

We, the citizens and voters of Medina county, who supported Mr. Pulliam in the first primary, feel that in Gordon Griffin we can place confidence and trust to represent us and the best interests of the citizenry of this section.

We further believe that he is the man for this hour and this day in the Nation's great need.

We therefore urge not only those who supported Mr. Pulliam in the first primary but all those who voted for any of the other candidates in the first primary to do all within their power to nominate Mr. Griffin for our Congressman from the 15th district.

SIGNED:
P. E. Lancaster, E. W. Dechert, T. C. Barnes, S. R. Coffey, L. F. Rothe, Jack Fasselmann, C. R. Gaines, C. M. Robertson, G. R. Bohmfalk, R. W. Gaines, J. E. Muenink, C. E. B. Jones, Preston C. Gaines, W. N. Saathoff, R. Jennings, Mrs. Emma McClain, Mrs. Geo. C. Bohmfalk, Mrs. Ray Jennings, Mrs. H. H. Crow, Mrs. R. Hartung, Robt. Hartung, V. A. Crow, H. W. McClain, J. L. Lynch, Mrs. J. L. Lynch, Geo. J. Scavens, Toby Taylor, C. A. Van Fleet, C. E. Laughinghouse, J. B. Daison, W. A. Mask, A. W. Hornung, Guido Richter, R. W. Berry, C. L. Graff, Arthur W. Ney, R. H. Richter.

LONG FELT NEED TO BE SUPPLIED.

People with cemetery lots in Hondo's two cemeteries have long felt the need for a water supply to enable them to beautify them with flowers and shrubbery. This want is soon to be supplied, to a partial extent at least.

Joe Ney owned a vacant lot in the old cemetery which he donated to the Cemetery Association. Funds were secured from the R. F. C. to dig a well on this property. The work was done by the unemployed, under the direction of J. W. Crow, and an abundance of water was struck at a depth of 55 feet. Water rose at the rate of a foot an hour until it attained a depth of 22 feet, and it took considerable effort to keep it down to a safe level until it is walled up. A brick wall is being built to preserve the well and it will soon be ready for a pump and pipes.

The well is about twenty-three feet lower than the highest point in the new cemetery and a tank and pipe system could easily supply all points of both cemeteries with accessible water.

from this district to succeed to the place recently vacated by Vice-President John N. Garner.

But while we broke too nearly even between our four "home boys" to give either one a long lead, our friends in the lower valley all but forgot three out of their five and single-shot on the leaders of the two opposing schools of valley politics so that two valley men are in the lead and this end of the district must choose between them.

Both men are able men. Both are likeable men. Both are lawyers by profession. Both are Democrats. As an official of the Democratic organization of Medina County, we shall support in the regular election on April 22nd whichever one wins in Wednesday's run-off with the same fervency and zeal as we would the other, whichever he may be, were he the winner.

But as an individual voter we shall perform our sovereign duty next Wednesday—as you should do yours—and exercise our choice between the two men. In the capacity of managing editor of this paper, we shall exercise that privilege for ourselves which we would cheerfully accord any other person desiring to do so of publicly expressing our choice that whoever may be interested may know. Having no quarrel with either man, but knowing that he is not to blame for our supporting him neither shall we hold him blame-worthy for the others who do the same.

We shall vote for West. West is the coming man!

How to regulate a child

The healthiest child's stomach, liver and bowels need stimulation at times. Many specialists believe this. Dr. Caldwell, with a wonderful record in treating babies and children, was always a firm believer in this.

Follow the advice of this famous family physician, and give your children this help. His prescription of fresh herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin keeps any system from clogging — or even growing sluggish.

Have you a youngster who is lagging at school, or listless at play, doesn't eat enough, and isn't gaining? Start this evening with Syrup Pepsin! Watch the quick improvement — the real "pep" and the better regularity. This gentle stimulant is felt first and most directly in the bowels.

Syrup Pepsin has the same action at any age. While mild enough for babies, adult doses of this same Syrup Pepsin keep older people in condition. It will protect your whole household from bilious days, sick headaches.

You can get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drugstore.

Messrs. John L. Pingnot, Sr., Ex-Sheriff Hammer Johnson of Uvalde County and John L. Pingnot, Jr., of Cline, Texas, were here Wednesday in the interest of the candidacy of Hon. Milton West for Congress. The elder Mr. Pingnot is a brother-in-law of Mr. West and has a strong personal interest in his success. The party interviewed a number of our citizens and were well pleased with their candidate's prospects. Mr. Johnson informed us that a large percentage of the Pulliam vote in Uvalde county would go to West now that Pulliam is out the running.

MRS. W. H. WIEMERS.

Zeda Wiemers, daughter of Henry and Johanna Schweers, was born April 3, 1860, at Upper Quihi, Medina County. She died March 6, 1933, at 11 A. M. at her home in New Fountain.

The deceased received her education and training in the county schools and in a Christian home. She received religious instruction at the age of 14, under Revs. Hardt and Baded, and joined the Methodist church Aug. 15, 1874, and remained a true and faithful member until the end. In all organizations of the church wherever it was possible, she took an active part as long as her health permitted. Not only the family but the church will miss her.

She was married to her now surviving husband, Wilhelm H. Wiemers, Jan. 18, 1879, and for 54 years they shared happiness and sorrow together. To this union were born nine children, two preceding her in death. Those to mourn her passing are Gus, Henry, Louis A. Wiemers, Amanda, Mrs. August Stiegler, Ida and Emelie, and Frank Wiemers, and four grandchildren. Also one brother and seven sisters, Willie Schweers of San Antonio, Mrs. J. W. Kothmann, Mrs. J. T. Zuercher, Mrs. P. A. Blaes, Mrs. E. E. Lehmburg, Mrs. Geo. Gerdes of San Antonio, Mrs. Gerdes of Bandera and Mrs. Fritz Stiegler, besides a host of other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Wiemers was laid to rest in the New Fountain cemetery on March 7, 1933. Services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. W. Dechert.

This paper joins in sympathy for those who mourn.

CHRISTIAN T. WIEMERS.

Christian T. Wiemers, son of Christian B. and Engelene Wiemers, was born Sept. 21, 1861, in Ostfriesland, Germany; came to America with his parents and only brother, John, in 1868. They settled in New Fountain Community and later Mr. Wiemers served as a Texas Ranger. In 1873, he was married to Miss Johanna Kutz at New Braunfels, Texas. They made their home in New Fountain until 1881, when they moved to Somerset, Texas, where he was active until his physical condition made activity impossible. For a number of years he was confined to a San Antonio hospital where he died March 1, 1933, at 1:30 P. M.

Mr. Wiemers' parents and brother, John, and his own wife preceded him in death. So the only relatives to mourn his departure are one sister-in-law, Mrs. John Wiemers, one nephew and three nieces all of San Antonio, and a number of other relatives and friends.

Mr. Wiemers joined the Methodist church May 11, 1873. Funeral services were conducted at Porter Loring Funeral Home, San Antonio, and from there the remains were brought to New Fountain and laid to rest there in the cemetery. Services were conducted by Rev. E. W. Dechert of New Fountain at both places.

Warning

Don't be misled by false statements. Calomel, salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills and drugs have no effect whatever on the liver or its production of bile. The truth of this statement can be proved by consulting the authoritative medical textbooks published during the past five years.

There are only two known substances which will actually stimulate a torpid or sluggish liver to cleanse and purify itself by increasing its production of bile. Sargol Soft Mass Pills contain both of these substances, and no other advertised medicine on the American market today does contain them.—(adv.)

ABOUT THE GASOLINE TAX.

Austin, Texas, March 7—Medina county taxpayers will save approximately $250,000 on their outstanding road bonds through the refunding act of the Legislature last year, according to preliminary figures just compiled by the state highway department.

Gasoline tax revenues are providing the money for this saving, beginning this year. The law sets aside one cent of the four-cent gas tax, or more than $7,000,000 a year. Each month's portion of this income is to be divided in the proper ratio and paid against the maturities of each county for that month.

The ratio is to be set by the new Board of County and District Road Indebtedness. Gibb Gilchrist, its chairman, said that while payments already have been begun, the amounts thus far are too scattered to bear any real significance.

The highway department's records show that Medina county has contributed $251,923 to the construction of designated state highways and bridges since the department was established in 1917. Judge R. J. Noonan has given state officials an estimate which covers a longer period, totalling $325,000. The amount finally approved will be somewhere between the two.

The total expenditures of this type by all the counties of the state, since 1917, total $90,345,267 according to highway department records. Estimates of county officials are still larger but highway officials believe the ultimate total will be about $110,000,000. On the basis now set by the legislature, from 12 to 15 years would be required to pay it from the gasoline tax.

The Texas Good Roads Association, which secured these figures from the department, pointed out that in addition to the one cent of the tax which goes to county bonds, another cent goes to the state school fund, leaving but two cents of the tax for its primary purpose—the construction and maintenance of roads. "Surely the motorists of Texas," the association's statement said, "are entitled to the remaining one-half of this special tax for highways and highways alone, unmolested by any further diversions. It will provide barely enough money to carry on the highway program on a much-reduced scale."

In order to weld the motorists of the state into a unified force for concerted action in their own interest, the association is now engaged in a statewide membership campaign, at a nominal fee. Civic leaders in every county in Texas are being selected to head local campaigns.

E. P. Leinweber Co. "The Store for all Generations"

TWO NEW FILMS FOR COLONIAL

"Madison Square Garden," a rapidly moving drama set against the kaleidoscopic background of New York's famed center of political, social and athletic life, has been booked for the Colonial Theatre, where it will show Saturday and Sunday nights. Jack Oakie, Thomas Meighan, Marian Nixon, Warren Hymer, William Collier, Sr., William Boyd and Zasu Pitts head the cast. The vivid panoramic view of the Garden's ever-changing activities is held together by the story of a manager who brings two proteges to New York and "The Garden," their meeting with two telegraph operators, and their adaptation of themselves to the new life. Collier plays the role of the manager, Hymer and Oakie are his proteges, Miss Nixon and Miss Pitts are the girls.

The nation's leading radio stars make their bow to the movie public in company with a cast of screen favorites in "The Big Broadcast," romantic comedy set against the background of a radio studio, which comes to the Colonial Theatre next Thursday and Friday. Bing Crosby, air ace, with Stuart Erwin and Lella Hyams, screen players, head the cast of the production. Kate Smith, the Boswell Sisters, the Mills Brothers, Cab Calloway and his Orchestra, Vincent Lopez and his Orchestra, Burns and Allen, and Arthur Tracy (The Street Singer) head the radio cast. The picture does not depend for its effectiveness on the mere presence of names, however. A definite plot holds it together and leads to amusing consequences which are straightened by means of a big broadcast in which all the stars participate.

MASONIC HOME COMING.

Arrangements are being made by the local lodge of Masons for a homecoming celebration next Tuesday evening and night, March 14th. At this meeting the portraits of the Past Masters of the lodge will be unveiled with appropriate ceremonies. The speaker of the occasion will be W. S. Toomey, Worshipful Master of San Antonio. The evening ceremonies will be for Master Masons only while all Master Masons, their wives, members of the Eastern Star and their husbands are cordially invited to attend the night meeting. Masons sojourning in the district are also cordially invited to attend.

HONDO LUTHER LEAGUE

The League held its regular meeting Sunday night, March 6th.

THE OLD JUDGE HARPER HOME.

Heavy Merriman in Frontier Times Magazine

Standing on the East bank of the Hondo river, about two miles from the town of Hondo, away from travelled roads, almost hidden from view by mesquite and cat-claw brush, is the old Judge Harper home, rich in history dating back before the Civil War, although known to few people outside of the old settlers.

The main part of the house consisting of four large rooms, three of which have fireplaces, and wide hall, with its massive walls, built of rock which was quarried a short distance up the river, is in a well preserved condition, although the roof has been replaced and the long front porch has almost rotted away with age.

This sturdy old land-mark, once the home and pride of a pioneer family, that, could it speak, could tell of war, Indian raids, Negro slaves and the like, is now used as a barn for the storing of hay, and wood-rats build their nests in the old fire-place and owls bring their young where they are safe from cold and storm.

It was in 1854 that G. W. Harper, commonly known as Judge Harper, headed Westward from Gonzales county, Texas, seeking lands in the great open country on which to locate. His family was large, consisting of nine sons and four daughters. On reaching the Hondo river, he acquired quite a body of land, lying on both banks of the river, and established a settlement in which at that time was frontier country, being the most remote settlement up the Hondo river. The lower portion of his vast acreage included land on which the northern part of the present town of Hondo is built.

The first house in which the Harper family lived after coming to the Hondo, was constructed of logs with dirt floors and grass roof, as were also the small shacks built to house the Negro slaves of whom Judge Harper owned some forty or fifty.

The surrounding prairies at that time were covered with tall sage-grass with here and there motts of live-oak trees. Indians made frequent raids from up the river canyons, stealing horses and mules and killing any whites they might by chance come upon. No settler dared venture from home without some sort of firearms to protect himself.

The nearest neighbor was miles away and the nearest town was Castroville, sixteen miles east. There was also a settlement at D'Hanis, nine miles West.

About three years after he settled on the Hondo river, Judge Harper had the misfortune to lose his good wife. In 1859 he married Mrs. Ann L. King, a widow who lived near San Marcos. The new Mrs. Harper had two sons of her own, one of them being Isaac King, a youth of about nine years at that time, and he, too, came with his mother and step-father to make his home in the Harper settlement. In 1860 was built the rock house that to this day, stands a monument to the name of Judge Harper. It is said that when the house was nearly completed and ready to be roofed with cypress shingles hauled from a saw-mill on the Medina river, a party of emigrants on their way from Bendera to California, came through the Harper settlement but on account of the river being high and impassable, they were forced to remain several days and the men of the party were given employment in roofing the house.

The new house was finally completed and it, no doubt, was with considerable pride that Judge Harper moved his family from the crude picket house they had occupied for years, and into the new rock "mansion".
On one occasion, the negroes came to the house early one morning and very excitedly reported that all the horses were gone from the corral and on investigation, the white men found that Indians had torn the fence down during the night and stolen all the horses, including a favorite shetland pony of Isaac King's.

Word soon spread through the settlement and a posse was formed to take the trail, as the tracks of the horses were plainly visible, where they had been led out of the corral, and follow the Indians.

Young Isaac King was very eager to go with the men, and if possible, recover the pony, of which he was very proud, but his mother at first would not think of his going, the boy being only twelve years of age, but he finally gained his mother's consent and the posse was off, following the trail south and down the river.

After travelling some eight miles, they came upon the dead body of a white man. On examining the body, they found it to be that of Pete Ketchum, who was no doubt out horse hunting alone.

After camping at the Redus ranch that night, the posse resumed their journey next morning and after proceeding a few miles, the leader stopped his horse and exclaimed: "Another dead man there in the valley".
This proved to be Mustang Moore.
The Indians had killed him, and taken his horse but left the rickety old burry after cutting the harness into strips. The town of Moore was later built on the spot and named for him.

The whites followed the trail of the Indians on into Atascosa county, where they learned that the Indians had abandoned the horses and turned back and were following another route back to the hill country from whence they had come and young King was soon in possession of his prized pony again.

Another incident to add color to the already eventful life of young Isaac King occurred just at this time.
He had mounted his pony to go out on a cow hunt and reached down to get his rifle which was leaning against a picket fence, when, in his pulling the gun, muzzle first, upward, in some way it was discharged and the ball struck young King in the left arm. His people, realizing the seriousness of the accident, immediately sent a messenger to San Antonio on horseback for a doctor but as the distance was 45 miles, it was three days before the doctor could possibly get there. The doctor on his arrival examined the shattered arm from which young King had been suffering so long and said it must be amputated at once. The question then arose as to where a person could be located who could give an anaes-thetic. A man who had had experience in this line of work in army hospitals was finally located at Castro-ville and with his assistance the arm was amputated next morning.

About three miles down the river from the Harper home was a two-story rock house which served the settlement as a schoolhouse and church, the second story being used by the Masonic Lodge. It was here that the younger Harper children and Isaac King walked to school, always carrying rifles which were stacked under the stairway and ready for instant use, as was also the case on Sunday when people went to church. This old building stood adjoining what is known as the old Masonic Cemetery and has been torn down, but the cemetery is in a well preserved state and most of the old graves are plainly marked with stones.

At the outbreak of the Civil War, the older Harper boys were called in to service to defend the Confederacy;
some of them never to return.

During the war, Confederate soldiers were frequently guests for the night at the hospitable home of Judge Harper.

During these trying times, a romance that proved to be far reaching, had sprung up in Harper settlement and it was even whispered among the "darkies" that there was a wedding to be and in 1868, Isaac King was married to the pretty Mel-lie Harper, youngest daughter of Judge Harper, and the ceremony was performed in the rock home of the Harpers.

Time went on and eventually Judge Harper divided his lands among his children, all of whom have passed on except Isaac King.

Perhaps these sturdy pioneers little dreamed that in a half century hence, their descendants would be taking their places as leaders in the business and professional life of the town of Hondo which was to spring up two miles south.

Lack of space prevents the giving of names of all the descendants of the Judge Harper family, but of those who now remain in and around Hondo, in addition to the King families, we mention the families of J. S.
Fly, D. H. Fly, J. H. Pluck and Bob Harper.

Mr. Isaac King, now in his eighty-fifth year, makes his home in Hondo with a daughter and is spending his declining years in comfort, and despite the fact that he lost his left arm by the accidental discharge of a rifle when a boy and his eyesight is failing, he is cheerful and delights in relating stories of hardships of the days of yesteryear.

Mr. King's oldest living son, V. P.
King, is manager of the I. H. King and Sons' ranch near Bandera, while his youngest son, H. F. King, is president of the Hondo State Bank.

The sage-grass no longer waves in the winds but as the sun lowers to the western horizon in the afternoon, the giant oaks still throw their long shadows across the old Judge Harper

Warning

Don't be misled by false statements. Calomel, salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills and drugs have no effect whatever on the liver or its production of bile. The truth of this statement can be proved by consulting the authoritative medical textbooks published during the past five years.

There are only two known substances which will actually stimulate a torpid or sluggish liver to cleanse and purify itself by increasing its production of bile. Sargol Soft Mass Pills contain both of these substances, and no other advertised medicine on the American market today does contain them.—(adv.)

Nature Our Best Teacher

Even in Winter the rain and the snow
Are stored in the soil to make our crops grow;
It's the wisdom of nature, who keeps things in store,
Prepares for the future so we may have more.
Since nature so wisely shows by her plan
That storing will add to the comfort of man,
It looks like man this lesson would heed,
And store for himself the things he may need.
The Hondo State Bank has looked all around,
But no better teacher than nature has found.

FARMERS' NEWS.

Editor Fletcher Davis of Fletcher's Farming, published out at Hondo, has the following in last issue of his excellent farm paper:

In the good year 1933, as in the years that have passed, that farmer who, with the means at his hands, makes his farm as nearly self-sustaining as possible will, on the average, find his farming operations most profitable. It is not only the American farmer's province to work out for himself a plan of operation that will best assure him such an achievement; it is his proud privilege which he should guard with jealous care against governmental intermeddlers however well-meaning may be said meddlers' intentions.

Brother Fletcher Davis is talking "right out in meeting", and is telling a whole lot of truth in so doing.—Fred B. Robinson in Waco News-Tribune.

SECO COMMUNITY P. T. A.

The regular meeting of the Seco Community P. T. A. was held at the schoolhouse on Friday evening, March 3. The pupils were presented in a program consisting of songs, readings, and recitations based on regular class work. "Swing Song" was followed by a paper on Asia by Albert Weyand; Gertrude Weyand recited a poem, "March"; recitations were given by the first and second grades; Lucille Pichot and Lillie Rudinger read papers on events in American history; Catherine Weyand and Mary Ann Lutz read original compositions; Richard Weyand and Edward Lutz read papers, "The First President" and "The Inauguration of Roosevelt"; Schubert's "Slumber Song" was sung by the pupils. Miss Josie Rothe gave an interpretation of Edward MacDowell's tone-poems, "To the Sea" and "March Wind", and then rendered them on the piano.

The business meeting, with Hubert Lutz, presiding, opened with the Creed. A complete annual report was made by the treasurer, Louis Lutz, who reported the balance as approximately thirty-six dollars. A letter from Mrs. E. J. Leinweber, chairman of the local health committee, and urging the inoculation of children against diphtheria, was read to the club. Mrs. Poerner, having declined, Mrs. Louis Pichot accepted the chairmanship and the club voted to take an active part in all work of the County Committee. A nominating committee having been appointed, the meeting adjourned.

BANK HOLIDAY STILL ON.

The five day bank holiday called last week by state officials has been extended to conform to regulations since promulgated by the national authorities, so instead of the banks opening as expected Wednesday they are still on "holiday".

When we last consulted officials of our local banks, they were without official notice and when operations would be resumed and can do nothing but "sit tight".

The public is finding it inconvenient to be deprived of banking facilities but are taking it with the usual great American spirit of tolerance and refusing to worry or resent it.

A little more patient endurance and the situation will soon be cleared up.

LOAN COMMITTEE NOW FUNCTIONING.

The machinery for securing crop loans from the Federal Reconstruction Finance Corporation for the 1933 crop production was set in motion here last Monday and applications for loans are now being received and acted upon by the committee. Any farmer who needs funds for his own operations or for his tenants is entitled to secure $300.00 by complying with the terms set up by the Corporation for distributing the same. Any member of the committee will be glad to furnish the details.

Mr. Myron Ward, the District Manager, was here Monday helping set up the local organization, the personnel of which is J. M. Finger, Chairman, Earl Boon, Hy. F. Buss, Henry Merriman, H. F. King, and R. C. Bess, committeemen.

R. J. Zerr and Miss Frances Finger have charge of the clerical work and are assisting applicants in filling out their applications. They can be found at the Chamber of Commerce Hall.

LA COSTE LEDGERETTES

From The LaCoste Ledger.
MRS. THERESA MANGOLD.

LaCoste paid a last and beautiful tribute to the memory of Mrs. Theresa Mangold, 75 years of age, one of the first residents of LaCoste. Mrs. Mangold took sick while visiting her son, A. N. Mangold, at Cliff last week Tuesday and gradually grew weaker and weaker and died Sunday, February 19th at 1:50 P. M., surrounded by her loved ones.

Business houses here were closed during the funeral services Tuesday morning, February 21st, 1933, out of respect for one of LaCoste's pioneer citizens.

Mrs. Mangold, nee Zuercher, was born at Old D'Hanis, Texas, on April 11, 1857, and had therefore attained an age of 75 years, 10 months and 8 days at the time of her demise.

She was happily married to Jacob Mangold at Castroville, September 1st, 1881, to which union were born 7 children, one son preceding her to the grave in January, 1900. Her husband died on November 3, 1910. She leaves surviving 3 daughters, Mrs. Otto P. Jungman and Mrs. Martin A. Mehlner of LaCoste and Mrs. A. E. Salzner of San Antonio, and 3 sons, John L. and Robert J. Mangold of LaCoste and Alfred N. Mangold of Cliff, and 18 grandchildren. She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Regina Franger of Castroville and Mrs. Christina Ehlinger of San Antonio, and two brothers, Joe L. and Martin L. Zuercher of San Antonio, besides many other dear and loving relatives and friends.

After her marriage she lived at Spindletop until 1895 when she and her family moved to LaCoste where they have resided ever since. She was a member of St. Ann's Society at Castroville and LaCoste. Members of both Societies attended the funeral in a body.

Her remains were brought to her home here Monday afternoon, where it was viewed by hundreds of friends and relatives until 9:45 A. M. Tuesday morning, after service at the residence they were taken to St. Mary's Church, where a Requiem Mass was offered by Rev. Joseph Schwellner, who was assisted in church and at the grave by Rev. Fathers Lenzen of Castroville and Staff of San Antonio.

Following services at church her corpse was carried to St. Mary's Cemetery, where it was tenderly laid to rest beside the grave of her husband. Interment was under the direction of the Horger Undertaking Co. of Hondo.

Pall-bearers were nephews of the deceased, Paul Ehlinger, Henry Franger, John Zuercher, Oscar Mangold, Walter and Adolph Mangold. Cross-bearer, Clyde Mangold; Mass servers, Ivan and Clayton Mangold, Melvin Salzman and George Zuercher.

A large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends followed the bier to its last resting place, which was held by the high esteem in which she was held by all who ever met her.

The Ledger extends its deepest sympathies to the grief-stricken and heartbroken children in this their great hour of sorrow.

May she rest in peace.

It is wonderful what a person can learn by reading the daily papers. Just lately I read a special correspondence from Moore, Texas, to the daily Express, wherein the havoc to young bees and to their brood was described in a way to scare beemen into hysterics. Now folks, we live a little closer to the North Pole, and owning hundreds of colonies of bees in Medina and surrounding counties, I find same in splendid shape, with no brood chilled and no dead bees as a result of that cold.

ZINSMEYER-SCHMIDT.

The marriage of Miss Irene Theresa Schmidt and Mr. William M. Zinsmeyer, both of this city, was celebrated in St. Mary's Church, Tuesday, February 28th, 1933, at 8:30 A. M., with Rev. Jos. Schwellner officiating. The impressive ceremony was followed by a Nuptial High Mass.

The bridal party entered church and marched up to the altar to the strains of a pretty wedding march played by Mrs. Julius Ahl in the following order: Miss Kathmeyer, Kellar and Mr. George Zinsmeyer, Miss Alice Schmidt, maid of honor, and the groom, followed by the bride, leaning on the arm of Mr. Cletus A. Batto.

The bridal party received Holy Communion in a body during the Mass, making it a truly Catholic wedding.

An informal reception was held in the home of the bride's parents, immediately following the ceremony.

The bride wore an ensemble of white crepe, trimmed in transparent matching net, and her veil was worn in a cap effect caught up on the right side by a spray of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white carnations and lace fern. The maid of honor wore a light green dress trimmed in transparent matching net with a white crystal cloth turban, carrying a bouquet of pink carnations and fern. The bridesmaid's dress was a lovely shade of blue with transparent matching net; she also wore a white crystal cloth turban and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and lace fern. The groom and his attendants wore dark suits.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schmidt, while the groom is the youngest son of Mrs. Mary Magdalene Zinsmeyer.

In the afternoon the bridal party left for San Antonio where a picture was taken of the young couple. Immediately after the young couple proceeded on a motor trip to Corpus and other points. Upon their return they will reside with their mothers for the present.

We join the many friends of the young couple in extending our congratulations; may they enjoy a long and happy married life.

QUIHI NOTES.

I am the resurrection, and the life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. John 11:25.

A hundred years hence, we're all gone and most of us forgotten. A new generation will be at the controls till their life's little day ebbs out. No one dares grieve it, except He who speaks the striking words above. "Change and decay" is not the last word with Him. After the falling eventide—and He knows whereof He speaks—"heaven's morn breaks" for those who believe in Him, though, at present, their heart seems to "beat funeral marches to the grave." The dead shall live again—for better or worse. Some deny a resurrection. Do they fear it? Neither fear nor doubt carries authority. He who once gave life mysteriously—physical and spiritual life—can give it again. We prefer to bank on Him, the Resurrection, the Life in its full eternal sense. He never lied.

About twenty signed up for regular Bible class work, i. e. for systematic Bible study, supplemented by lectures on various phases of church history, modern problems and vital issues in Christian life and aspirations. Some may have been prevented from coming. They are still welcome. No age limit. Even where regular attendance is impossible, however much this is desirable, no one shall be debarred. Come and bring your problems, perhaps we find a solution. It's time well spent, when you apply it on things fundamental to your temporal and eternal happiness.
